DR. RUSSEL IS BACK FROM JAPAN

APOSTLE OF CIVIL LIBERTY TO RUSSIAN PRISONERS IN JAPAN RETURNS BY THE SIBERIA.

Dr. Nicholas Russell arrived from Japan by the S. S. Siberia this morning after an extended absence in that country. Dr. Russell was very active during his residence in Japan in proselyting the Russian prisoners to the modern ideas of civil liberty. He published a periodical in Japan and his efforts met with much success.

When he went to Japan from Honolulu he was armed with credentials to the Japanese government which gave him in consequence, special facilities for going among the Russians and conducting his proselyting work. He distributed a large amount of literature of this character among the men and it is said to have exerted much influence upon his former countrymen.

Dr. Russell was assisted in his work by George Kennan, the famous writer on the Siberian prison system. Kennan may visit Dr. Russell when he comes to Honolulu from the Far East this year.

"HELD BY THE ENEMY" AT OPERA TONIGHT

"Thelma" had the folks at the Opera House last evening a-quiver with interest as intense as it was enthusiastic. There was a good attendance and the Buhler performers were received with a warm welcome. The performance being for the benefit of the Hawaii Yacht Club, the theater was draped with flags, the pennant of the Yacht Club being particularly noticeable.

Ernest Kaai's musicians entertained delightfully between the acts of the play.

Owing to the fact that they had been busy all the afternoon getting ready for today's boys' Field sports, the young men who were to have done some gymnastic stunts between acts, were unable to be present.

Commodore H. E. Cooper of the Hawaii Yacht Club, occupied a box with the commander and staff of the battleship Oregon.

"Thelma" will be reproduced this afternoon at the matinee at the Opera House, to a crowd that is sure to fill the house. To-night the Buhlers will present "Held by the Enemy," that stirring war drama so enthusiastically received Thursday evening.
